DEDICATION

We, the Seniors, of 1961, proudly dedicate the MACOFITZ to Mrs. Irene B. Averitte. She has been a very efficient and capable secretary and an outstanding friend to us.

She has helped us in all of our school activities, urging us to greater heights of success.

She will be long remembered by her winning smile, charming personality, and her willingness to help all.

We are honored to be able to dedicate the MACOFITZ of 1960-1961 to Mrs. Irene B. Averitte.

CLASS HISTORY

In the fall of 1956, one hundred and fifty-four of us arrived at Stedman from Sunnyside, Cedar Creek, Beaver Dam, and Stedman elementary schools. We were wide-eyed, bewildered, and curious to know what the following year would hold for us. We soon learned that we would be the first to use a new system of changing classes, developed to better prepare eighth grade students for their high school routine. Our patient sponsors were Mr. Peele, Mr. Jones, and Miss Hall, and Mrs. Hubbard.

We entered school the following fall as an "enlightened" group of one hundred and twenty-six freshmen. We found high school activities exciting and different from anything we had known. Our sponsors were Mr. Catlett, Mr. Jones, and Mrs. Piland, and Miss Harrington. The class elected the following as officers: President, Wayne Barefoot; Vice-President, Stacy Harris; Secretary, Reba Bullard; and Treasurer, Ted Autry. We had an enjoyable trip to White Lake at the end of our freshman year.

The fall of 1958, found us, a group of one hundred and seventeen better prepared students, looking forward to our coming sophomore year. We met our class sponsors who were Mr. Yates, Mr. Giddings, Mr. Cherry, and Mr. Catlett. We soon had a class meeting and elected Jean Strickland, President; Wayne Barefoot, Vice-President; Ava Nunnery, Secretary; Louise Autry, Treasurer. We were very happy to see thirteen of our students become Beta Club members.

We began our Junior year in the fall of 1959, with an enrollment of one hundred students. We elected Tommy Lewis, President; Wayne Barefoot, Vice-President; Ava Nunnery, Secretary; and Lavetta Strickland, Treasurer. Our sponsors were Mrs. Autry, Mrs. Cain, and Mr. Sylvant. We sponsored the hilarious Donkey Basketball Game and the Womanless Pageant as our fund raising projects along with the Junior Play, "No Boys Allowed". Some of the class members were honored that year in the following ways: Kay Jackson was chosen F.H.A. Sweetheart, Iris Hall was chosen F.F.A. Chapter Sweetheart; and Bobby Averitt was chosen F.H.A. Chapter King. Seven of our class members were chosen for the Macofitz staff. We were honored to have Ava Nunnery, Carol Ann Vinson, Betty Williams, Annette Bunce, Jean Strickland, Lavetta Strickland, Mary Ours, and the chiefs Amelia Mozingo, Wayne Barefoot, and Tommy Lewis as marshals. The outstanding event of our Junior year was the Junior and Senior Prom. We chose as our theme, "Life In the Old South."

The big day finally arrived. We entered Stedman School this past fall, Seniors at last. We were very excited to receive our class rings a few days later. We elected Jimmy Carter, President; A.J. Jordon, Vice-President; Becky Faircloth, Secretary; Glenda Gillis, Treasurer. We chose Helen Gillis and David Horne as our mascots. Our sponsors were Mrs. Sills, Mrs. Wells, and Mr. Smith. We dedicated our annual to Mrs. Averitt, school secretary. As the Senior year progresses we look forward with mixed emotions to the experience of attending the Junior-Senior Prom as guests. At the close of this year many of us will part company but the memories we have made as a class will always linger in our hearts.

Respectfully submitted,

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

One rainy day in 1960, with nothing to do but to amuse ourselves as best we could, we visited an old "Mechanic's Workshop". The proprietor told us to browse around and to make ourselves at home. Surely enough, we had a brain-storm and invented a "Time Machine". While pondering over our new machine, someone accidentally pushed the wrong button. The machine began to vibrate and away we went to the year of 1971. Now here we were with no way to return as of yet. But to further our amusement and yours, let us tell you of the unusual things we saw around us. We landed in what is now a huge metropolis, which we knew as Stedman. To the left of us we saw what the people here called an "Aero-mobile". The familiar face driving it is our old classmate, Ottis Carter, inventor of it. Jerry Horne, Douglas Hahn, and Tommy Lewis are all drivers in the "Stedman 500". As we were now at the race, other classmates of ours, Danny Johnson and A.J. Jordan, were announcing the race-drivers; Ted Autry, J.L. Weathington, Charles Core, Thomas Barefoot, Nixon Spell, and Theresa Maxwell. Taking pictures of the line-up were our old chums, Donald Faircloth and Walter Pinter. Then around us everyone stood to see the accident that had just happened on the track. An ambulance arrived and we looked closer to see the familiar faces of Rowland Horne and Jimmy Jackson, who invited us to go with them to see the new hospital at Stedman. We accepted, and among the first cheery faces we saw were Barbara Faircloth and Joey Bedsole, head nurses. We were over-joyed to see them, and they were taking us now on a personal tour of the hospital. As we rounded the corner we bumped into young doctors Wayne Hales, Stacy Harris, and John D. Starling.

In their offices were: Sudie Hubbard, Sandra McLeod, Louise Autry, Pat Warren, Maxine Bullard, Ernest Melvin, and Wyman Faircloth. They invited us in to see Dr. Amelia Mazingo, head psychiatrist. In the children's ward, we saw Barbara Huffman, R.N. She took us in to see Martha Hubbard and Sandra Parrish, who were x-ray technicians, and Carol Vinson, head of the pharmacy department. Then she walked us to the elevator where we saw the familiar face of the elevator boy, W.K. Freeman. Walking out the door we glanced at the reception desk and saw the following busy at work: Dorcas Hall, Lilma Jackson, Faye Smith, Mary Hairr, Emily Bullard and Glenda Hales. They told us that the two famous baseball players, Donald McLamb and Danny Yarborough, were recuperating from a minor accident there. As we got into the taxi, our driver was Leroy Horne. He took us to the hotel owned by Plato Haithcock. His business managers were: Wayne Guin, Douglas Bullard, Joe Edge, and Helen Faircloth. Next door is a business building owned by Nancy White, famous journalist. Employed here as lawyers were: H.P. Carter, Jimmy Carter, Elwood House, and Jimmy Blake. Private secretaries were: Bonnie Cook, Iris Hall, Jannie Davis, Diane McKenzie, Catherine Morgan, Jewell Bullard, Jannie Bullard, Ann Kinlaw, Betty West and Helen Fisher. Meanwhile, back at the hotel, the following people have checked in: Betty Williams and Annette Bunce, missionaries; Wayne Barefoot, Minister; Becky Faircloth and Tommy Cannon, Naval officers; R.L. Jones and L.C. Bullard, Air Force members; Orvis Haithcock, Army Sergeant; Ronny Autry, pilot; Barbara Briggs, Emily Beany, Mattie Simmons, Stewardesses. Businessmen here were: Maurice Suggs, owner of Ford Motor Co.; Verlyn Bunce, clothes pin factory owner; Tommy Beard, A & P Chain Store owner (Tommy's managers were: Meat Dept., Jessie Simmons; Produce Dept., Jimmy Autry). Glenda Gillis, teacher, had just returned from Hawaii and told us of friends there. On the desk we see the local newspaper whose main attraction to us was the Society Column which contained the following names: Bobby Averitte, owner of Marilyn Shoe Store; Lacy Harris, electronics engineer; David Bass, astronomer; Dorothy Faircloth and Frances Tew, beauticians; Kay Jackson, recording star; and Shirley Russ, model. Newlyweds include: Patsy Davis, Martha Westbrook, Ava Nunnery. The following boys heard of our famous "Time Machine", and came to tell us that they had invented a part that would speed us back to the present: Lennon Hall, Latha Horne, William Bunce, and Stanley Willis. It was indeed wonderful to see all of our friends in the future, but now we must leave. Our last glances were of our beloved sponsors of 1961: Mrs. Charlotte Sills, Mrs. Patricia Wells, and Mr. Manroe Smith. We push a button, the vibrating begins, and we are on our way back to the present.

The 1960 baseball team was District 2 champions. They were also county runners-up to Central. The biggest highlight of the season was when Jimmy (Zeke) Thompson pitched a no-hit, no-run game over arch-rival Massey Hill. Congratulations boys!!

BAND

Stedman High School is proud to have one of the first and finest bands in Cumberland County. Under the capable direction of Mr. Angelo Capparella, the Band has grown and is continuing to grow. This new extra-curricular activity provides valuable knowledge, as well as pleasure to the students who participate. The members of the Band have enjoyed the opportunities of the Band greatly.
